

Bring Your Group

Bring your day camp groups to the Brooklyn Museum for a cool cross-cultural journey through art from around the world. Campers will investigate artworks old and new, hear myths and stories, explore art materials, and move their bodies. Choose a guided tour for your campers ages six to thirteen.

The Museum's Teen Programs are made possible by:

The Brooke Astor Fund for New York City Education in the New York Community Trust; the Constans Culver Foundation; the Pinkerton Foundation; and Epstein Teicher Philanthropies.

Teen Programs are also supported in part by the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs and the New York State Council on the Arts.

Major support for these activities is also provided by the Museum's Edith and Frances Mulhall Achilles, William Randolph Hearst, and Joseph F. McCrindle Foundation education endowments and by Con Edison.
