The Brooklyn Museum Announces Public Programs in June for Visitors of All Ages

In-person and virtual programming welcomes community members to the Museum for Pride Month and Juneteenth

The Brooklyn Museum presents a robust lineup of programming for adults and children this June, including a special First Saturday on June 4, a musical event by Papi Juice celebrating Brooklyn Pride, a day of family programming commemorating Juneteenth, and a panel honoring the late artist and designer Virgil Abloh. Other programs include talks, classes, tours, and special events that amplify the Museum's exhibitions and collection, serve the surrounding community, and support learning through the visual arts.

Safety continues to be the Museum's top priority, so at this time masks are required for staff and visitors aged two and older. Certain events and programs may require proof of vaccination in order to attend; please review your tickets closely for up-to-date requirements. Some programs will take place online and through the Museum's social media channels.

Museum Members enjoy complimentary or discounted tickets and early access to public programs.
