The Brooklyn Museum announces its lineup of June programming, including a Brooklyn Talk with Reni Folawiyo and Kehinde Wiley tied to Africa Fashion, a Juneteenth Jubilee, and a variety of events celebrating Pride Month. Additional programs include classes, tours, and special events that amplify the Museum's exhibitions and collections, serve the surrounding community, and support learning through the visual arts.

Museum Members enjoy complimentary or discounted tickets and early access to public programs.

Highlights of the full schedule are as follows:

Brooklyn Museum

First Saturday: Pride
Saturday, June 3, 5–11 pm
 Throughout the Museum
 Free; registration required.

Celebrate Pride Month and twenty-five years of First Saturdays with a lineup of queer and trans artists. Together we honor the heritage of LGBTQ+ creative communities in Brooklyn while imagining their incandescent futures.

Brooklyn Pop-Up Market
Sundays, June 4, 11, 18, and 25, 10:30 am–5:30 pm
 Plaza (June 11: Rubin Pavilion)
 Free.

Stop by our market to shop one-of-a-kind, handmade items from local artisans. This weekly event features more than twenty vendors offering artwork, jewelry, fashion, home and apothecary goods, and more.

Drag and Draw
Thursday, June 8, 7–9:30 pm
 Steinberg Family Sculpture Garden, 1st Floor
