The Brooklyn Museum announces its lineup of March programming, including family concerts by the Brooklyn Conservatory Community Orchestra, a Pints and Prints inspired by Copy Machine Manifestos: Artists Who Make Zines, and a portrait photography workshop connected to Giants: Art from the Dean Collection of Swizz Beatz and Alicia Keys. Additional programs include classes, tours, and special events that amplify the Museum's exhibitions and collections, serve the surrounding community, and support learning through the visual arts.

Museum Members enjoy complimentary or discounted tickets and early access to public programs.

Highlights of the full schedule are as follows:

Brooklyn Museum

First Saturday: Ourselves, Together

Saturday, March 2, 5–11 pm

Throughout the Museum

Free; registration is required and includes Museum general admission.

In the spirit of Copy Machine Manifestos: Artists Who Make Zines, honor the antiestablishment ethos of DIY with a gender-expansive lineup of artists and collectives. Experience a range of experimental genres, such as drag, punk, folk medicine, and alternative interventions into film and poetry.

Pints and Prints: Copy Machine Manifestos

Friday, March 8, 7–9 pm

Pavilion, 1st Floor

Tickets are $35 and include after-hours admission to Copy Machine Manifestos: Artists Who Make Zines, a complimentary drink, and a Brooklyn Museum tote. Art materials are provided.

Grab a brew and create your own art prints inspired by Copy Machine Manifestos: Artists Who Make Zines. Teaching artist Sam Kelly leads a class centered on printmaking, a practice essential to DIY zines and art books. Plus, enjoy tunes from 8-Ball Community's DJ Shiver.

Brooklyn Pop-Up Winter Artisans Market

Saturday–Sunday, March 9–10, 11 am–5:30 pm

Pavilion, 1st Floor
