The Brooklyn Museum announces its lineup of May programming, including the return of Yoga on the Stoop, our fan-favorite scent tours accompanying the exhibition Hiroshige's 100 Famous Views of Edo \(feat. Takashi Murakami\), and a Teen Night celebrating art and activism. Additional programs include classes, tours, and special events that amplify the Museum's exhibitions and collections, serve the surrounding community, and support learning through the visual arts.

Museum Members enjoy complimentary or discounted tickets and early access to public programs.

Highlights of the full schedule are as follows:

Stroller Tours: Giants

Wednesdays, May 1 and 8, 10–11:15 am

Great Hall, 1st Floor

Tickets are $32 (per family; 1 adult, 1 child) and include Museum general admission. Additional adults are $16.

We welcome our youngest museumgoers and their caregivers to experience the Museum through interactive tours of Giants: Art from the Dean Collection of Swizz Beatz and Alicia Keys.

First Saturday: In Bloom

Saturday, May 4, 5–11 pm

Throughout the Museum

Free; registration is required and includes Museum general admission.

Celebrate spring, Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month, and our exhibitions Artland and Hiroshige's 100 Famous Views of Edo \(feat. Takashi Murakami\). May's First Saturday features a lineup of artists, poets, and musicians from the Asian diaspora in Brooklyn and beyond.

Brooklyn Pop-Up Market

Sundays, May 5, 12, 19, and 26, 10:30 am–5:30 pm

Cantor Plaza, 1st Floor

This event is free and takes place outdoors (rain location: Martha A. and Robert S. Rubin Pavilion, 1st Floor).

Stop by our market to shop one-of-a-kind, handmade items created by artisans and vendors from across Brooklyn, featuring artwork, jewelry, fashion, home and apothecary goods, and more.

Yoga on the Stoop

Saturday, May 11, 10–11 am

Cantor Plaza, 1st Floor

Tickets are $20 and include Museum general admission.

Meet us on the plaza steps for a morning of yoga and meditation, open to all levels and led by local instructors. Open your hips and your heart in this gentle flow class, followed by a guided meditation to start off your weekend.

Teen Night: Power and Presence

Photography Collection. Look at and learn about works by nearly 50 women artists who are resisting traditional ideas of gender and nationality, as well as of photography itself.

ABOUT THE BROOKLYN MUSEUM

For 200 years, the Brooklyn Museum has been recognized as a trailblazer. Through a vast array of exhibitions, public programs, and community-centered initiatives, it continues to broaden the narratives of art, uplift a multitude of voices, and center creative expression within important dialogues of the day. Housed in a landmark building in the heart of Brooklyn, the Museum is home to an astounding encyclopedic collection. More than 140,000 objects represent cultures worldwide and over 5,500 years of history—from ancient Egyptian masterpieces to significant American works, to groundbreaking installations presented in the only feminist art center of its kind. One of the oldest and largest art museums in the country, the Brooklyn Museum remains committed to innovation, creating compelling experiences for its communities and celebrating the power of art to inspire awe, conversation, and joy.
