Join an Afternoon of Play and Art-Making at the Brooklyn Museum's Annual Family Party Benefit on January 21

The Family Party, the Brooklyn Museum's annual fun-filled family benefit, returns on Sunday, January 21, from 4 to 7 pm. Adults and children will enjoy mind-expanding art projects and activities led by Brooklyn-based artists and Museum educators throughout the Museum's Beaux-Arts Court, located on the third floor. Multidisciplinary artists KAWS will serve as Event Host, and artist Jeremyville will lead an art-making activity. Additional participating artists are to be announced.

Proceeds from the event will support the Museum in continuing to make innovative exhibitions and free or low-cost education and outreach programs accessible to thousands of people each year.

The afternoon's highlights include a bouncy castle, a kid-run dance party, a custom photo booth, and a tour of our ancient Egyptian art collection, among many other activities. Snacks and beverages—for kids and adults—will be available throughout the afternoon. Guests will also receive a goody bag full of Brooklyn-made products for the whole family to enjoy.

Tickets and packages are as follows:
