Brooklyn Museum Public Programs for Adults, Teens, and Kids in March 2019

The Brooklyn Museum will present a variety of programs for adults, teens, and kids in March. Public programs include talks, performances, and hands-on workshops for children and adults that amplify the Museum's exhibitions and collection, serve its diverse public, and support learning through the visual arts.

Highlights include an Artist History Happy Hour, adidas: Art & Yoga, and a Frida Kahlo Teen Night.

Museum Members enjoy complimentary or discounted tickets and early access to public programs by emailing membership@brooklynmuseum.org with full name and Membership I.D.

Note: Public programs do not include admission to Frida Kahlo: Appearances Can Be Deceiving (visit brooklynmuseum.org to purchase tickets).

The full schedule follows:

Sundays, March 3, 10, 17, 24, and 31; 1:30–2:30 pm

F.A.M. (Family Art Magic)

Education Gallery, 1st Floor

Single-day tickets are $27 and include Museum general admission.

Designed specifically to engage younger museumgoers, F.A.M. (Family Art Magic) is a collaborative program that invites children ages 4–6 and adult companions to explore the world through art. This spring, participants will learn about wearable works of art, such as crowns, clothing, and jewelry, in galleries across the Museum, including the special exhibition Frida Kahlo: Appearances Can Be Deceiving.

Thursday, March 7, 7–9 pm

Art History Happy Hour

Martha A. and Robert S. Rubin Pavilion, 1st Floor
This event is free.

Participants get a crash course in feminist art history in honor of the special exhibition Half the Picture: A Feminist Look at the Collection with an evening of fun and informative lectures, accompanied by wine and beer. This month’s experts—Carmen Hermo, Associate Curator, Elizabeth A. Sackler Center for Feminist Art, and artists Alice Neel of Guerrilla Girls and Nayland Blake, whose works are on view in the exhibition—bring a range of experience to their exploration of the legacies of feminist art. Presented in partnership with the Society for the Advancement of Social Studies (SASS).

Saturday, March 9, 9:30–11 am

adidas: Art & Yoga

Beaux-Arts Court, 3rd Floor
Tickets are $10 and include Museum general admission.

Enjoy a morning of exhilaration and inspiration, courtesy of adidas. Following more than an hour of yoga and mindfulness meditation led by local instructors, explore the Museum’s galleries on a self-guided tour of specially selected contemplative objects. Yoga mats are provided.

Sunday, March 10, 4–5:30 pm

Creativity Lab

Education Studios, 1st Floor
Free with Museum general admission.

Visitors of all ages are invited to drop by the Education studios and explore their creative side. Taking inspiration from the Brooklyn Museum’s galleries, visitors can experiment with materials and learn artistic techniques with a new project each month.

Wednesday, March 13, 10–11 am

Stroller Tour

Martha A. and Robert S. Rubin Lobby, 1st Floor
Tickets are $25 and include Museum general admission.

Young museumgoers and their caregivers enjoy an interactive, stroller-friendly tour. Designed for children up to 24 months, it includes touchable objects, songs, exploration of a small selection of art on view, and an opportunity to connect with other adults. The March tour focuses on specific objects in Frida Kahlo: Appearances Can Be Deceiving.
